

Steve Fisk

Producer/Writer/Engineer/Mixer

Few figures exerted greater influence over the contemporary Pacific Northwest music scene than Steve Fisk. A veteran of bands including Pell Mell and Pigeonhed, Fisk has earned his greatest renown as a producer, helming sessions for acts including Nirvana, the Screaming Trees, Soundgarden and Beat Happening. Fisk made his solo debut in 1980 with contributions to the compilations Sub Pop 5 and Life Elsewhere, in 1985 Fisk co-founded the instrumental outfit Pell Mell, which issued a series of well-received efforts on SST. That same year he made his producing debut with the Screaming Trees' Other Worlds, followed in 1986 by the group's Clairvoyance; soon his credit appeared regularly on releases from the Sub Pop and K labels, including key early releases from the likes of Beat Happening and Soundgarden.

In 1990 Fisk produced Nirvana's Blew EP, followed by sessions with Some Velvet Sidewalk, Treepeople, Unwound and the late Steven Jesse Bernstein. In 1993, he teamed with vocalist Shawn Smith in the electronic duo Pigeonhed, issuing a self-titled LP on Sub Pop. He made the leap to the majors in 1994, helming projects for the Wedding Present's (Island) and the 360's (RCA); a year later a reunited Pell Mell issued Interstate on DGC, and for the same label, Fisk produced the the Posies and Boss Hog. Subsequent projects include sessions with Geraldine Fibbers', Low, Soul Coughing, Damien Jurado and Witchy Poo. His third solo album 999 Levels of Undo, arrived in early 2001 on Sub Pop.
